Hair Goods,

I make your combings into switches, braids, transformations and other hair goods at a small price. I also remodel hair goods, add hair to your old braids and transformations. Braids colored and re-woven at moderate price. Mrs. Maud Mackey Walker, 207 W. Main St. Phone 545. Residence 202. 52-1f

Stock of Goods For Sale

I desire to sell my nice, clean stock of groceries, notions, etc., located on First street. Good cash stand and am doing nice business, but want to make a change. Will sell at a bargain if taken at once. James B. Parke. First street, Richmond, Ky. 91-1f

News and Comment.

Harry is making a capital press agent for Evelyn Thaw. She is simply raking in the ducats, while he is getting away with his trying to get out.

A New York surgeon claims to have found two appendices when he went exploring for one in a man. "Thought he could charge more by claiming it, doubtless."

An Ohio criminal is said to have been made an honest man by a surgical operation. A black snake whip would be just as efficacious and much less expensive.

It is figured that child rearing has increased 40 per cent. in cost since 1903, but that won't deter those who want to try it.

An aged man in North Carolina, who wants to marry the seventh time, would seem to be old enough to know better, but wisdom does not always come with age.

A New York evangelist claims that only 15 per cent. of the church members follow the christian path. We had feared that the percentage wasn't so large.

Enoch Grehan, the Lexington Herald's theatrical critic, proves that words were invented to conceal thought, in his write-up of the "Passing Show," though it was easy to read between the lines that it was n. g. He left no reason for doubt, however, as to his opinion of the Ben Ali Theatre, which he described in glowing words and then was unable to do the "Theatre Beautiful" half justice. To use a slangy but apt expression, it is a peach in every particular.

British suffragettes burned down a $500,000 institution which was to have been used for the treatment of lunacy, for fear, doubtless, that it was built for their incarceration.

A West Virginian has brought suit for divorce because his wife has contracted the jail habit. Some men are so unreasonable and hard to please.

Five thousand copies of the Bible have been placed in the guest rooms of the hotels in Washington through the efforts of the Gileads, or Christian Commercial Travelers of America. This is a waste of effort. Most people who visit Washington are more concerned about the flesh pots of office than in the hereafter, which they will let take care of itself.

Ty Cobb, the great base ball player, has been chosen president of the First National Bank at Lavonia, Ga., and has signed some bank notes, which his admirers are getting hold of and keeping. The bank evidently has an eye to business. It will be big money in its safe if all its notes are kept from redemption.

The eleven children of R. M. Doan, of Richland, this county, have whooping cough, says the Cynthiana Democrat. That's something to worry about, Doan you think?

Mr. Babbage will be at the county fair next Friday and Saturday.—Cloverport News. Now, there is an exhibit worth while! If the State Fair had used it, there would not have been the usual deficit.

Mrs. Katherine Ketchum Blake has begun proceedings to obtain $1,000,000 damages from Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay on the charge that she alienated the affections of her husband. Don't many wives value their husbands so highly. We know one or two who would be glad to dispose of theirs at 30 cents.

President Wilson journeyed to Trenton to vote in the primary and his man won the nomination for Governor. He is always on the right side.

The Danville Advocate says the State Fair lost $100,000. This is evidently a mistake. But the fact remains that it lost enough to put it on the list of undesirable, which should be made to go, lest it bankrupt the State.

Mrs. Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette, whose visit to this country was delayed, says she has no fear about coming. Right; nobody will harm her. But she's got to behave herself like a lady, if she expects to be treated as one.

The Lexington Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy has made a demand that an Ohio paper retract its charge that Gen. John H. Morgan escaped from the Columbus prison by bribery and not by digging under the walls. If the editor knew these women as we do, he would not stand on the order of his retraction but would do so p. d. q.

A Chicago meat packer says that it won't be long before we will have to eat horse flesh. Judging by what they have been giving us at the boarding house, old mule meat is already being sold.

That paper said in its yesterday's issue "The Cynthiana Democrat enters upon its 40th year of continuous publication with today's issue." We had no idea Jim Allen was so old. He certainly carries his age well.

The trees are beginning to do what the silk skirt girls have been doing all summer—showing their limbs.

Preaching at Kavanagh.

Elder J. W. Harding, of Winchester, will preach at Kavanagh next Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Died From Effects.

Mrs. Rollie Stamper, who swallowed a quantity of poison at her home on the Walter Hampton place a few days ago, as told in this paper, died from the effects of the poison, Tuesday.

Honor Roll

The following is the honor roll of Green's Chapel School to Sept. 20th: Jennie Murphy, Nowell Goodlet, Nora Agee, Viola Agee, Evangeline VanArsdel, Katie McBride and Geneva Murphy.

An Innovation

Living models will be used by Graves, Cox & Co., at Lexington, during the Fall Fashion Week to display their handsome lines of boys and children's suits, overcoats, etc. This is an unusual event and promises to be one of the big hits of the Fashion Week.

Get Rid of the Torments Of Rheumatism.

That you can do by ridding yourself of the cause. Weak and inactive kidneys allow uric acid poisons to remain in the blood and rheumatic pains, swollen and aching joints follow. Take Foley Kidney Pills to ease your pain and torment. They will positively and permanently build up the kidneys, restore their normal action and keep the uric acid crystals out of the blood and body. Try them. For sale by all dealers.

Sermon Preached On The Criminal Tendency Of The Times.

Danville, Ky., Sept. 24, 1913. To the Richmond Climax: Will you kindly give space in your much valued Climax in order that I may lay before the dear people a sermon which was delivered here recently by one who has not received a call to preach. After the usual preliminaries had been concluded not omitting passing around the hat for the offering, the minister arose and began his discourse by saying: My dearly beloved brethren and sisters: I have selected after much deep thought and no amount of groaning and grumbling in the spirit, what I regard a suitable text on which to base my remarks on this occasion and I would now have you turn with me to 17th Chapter of Jeremiah and read the eleventh verse, which recites: "As the partridge sitteth on eggs which she hath not laid, so is he that getteth (office) riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall be a fool."

Never having received a call to preach it may appear presumptuous for me to take my stand "on Mars Hill;" but it does seem to me absolutely necessary in the face of what has happened over in Clark and other counties in the State, that some one should cry aloud in the wilderness and spare not. Without any desire to wound or ruffle the feelings of any member of this congregation, you will pardon me for saying, that your pastor who now stands before you and has been for a long time watching your capers very closely, he desires to state here and now, without the fear of contradiction, that fully nine tenths of you have been led captive by the devil at his will. This being true, I feel justified in having taken the liberty to add only one word to the text (office) which for some cause Jeremiah in his writings left out.

I feel perfectly well satisfied had the prophet lived in a time when primaries were in vogue, he would under no consideration "cut it out." If my premise is correct, then may I not say that the whole gist of the scripture which I have read aloud in your hearing is directory, and when summed up in a nut shell, the import of the words clearly indicate the whole duty of man especially as to primary elections. The inference to be drawn from the text is: never to resort to unfair and unlawful means to secure the accomplishment of any end or design. As the Shepherd (for the present) of the flock, and feeling that my sheep (who are scattered) still recognize my voice, I would have those of you who do hear and recognize, never under any state of case to set upon a hatching of eggs laid by some other partridge. Let us live for higher and grander ideals so that it may be well with us after we have shuffled off the mortal coil which has been so closely wound around these mortal bodies of ours, and here I must in no wise omit to exhort one and all to contend always and most earnestly "for the faith once delivered to the Saints."

There was a time in the better days when my acquaintance in the counties of Clark, Bourbon and Montgomery could with difficulty be numbered, but now my acquaintance has dwindled down so as to include Clark only, and as to acquaintance in the other two, "few and far between," and I might also add, scattering. Speaking now for Clark, and by no manner of means to the disparagement of either Bourbon or (Continued on 4th page)
